There was a time when I'd been working at a pretty shitty graphic design job. My boss was useless, the pay was tiny, but I'd somehow acquired a stack of black and white Cricut cut patterns for collage. I think the ones I was using were for dogs, or something to that effect. Of course, this is just a Cricut cut pattern, not a dog. I'd been having some serious crafting withdrawals. As such, I decided to use some of these fantastic dog collage cut-outs. I have no recollection of how I did it, but I remember vaguely sitting on the bathroom floor for a while, crying, while my dog watched me with her big, brown eyes and waited patiently. My tears mixed in with the blood on my hand, so it's not clear. That's where I left off. Surgical oncology in Japan: status quo 6d1f23a050
